Clearview Public Library Stayner Branch Fundraising Campaign Receives $10,000 Donation

CLEARVIEW, ON September 17, 2021 – The Clearview Public Library Stayner Branch fundraising campaign is now $10,000 closer to its goal of $250,000, thanks to a personal donation made at the branch on September 17, 2021, by Sajjad Hussain and Muzammil Kodwavi, business owners within the Township of Clearview.

“In the 30 years I have worked as a librarian in the Stayner community, this project has been the most exciting library adventure in which I have been involved.” Said Jennifer La Chapelle, CEO of the Clearview Public Library, “Despite having to open in the middle of the Pandemic we have had “oohs” and “aahs” from residents entering our doors. On behalf of the Clearview Public Library Board and staff, I would like to thank Sajjad and Muzammil for their financial commitment to this important community initiative.”

Mayor Measures is thankful for the investment in the community amenities, “Clearview Township is grateful for this donation to the Clearview Public Library Building fund. It is encouraging to know that business owners recognize the importance of investing in the community amenities that truly serve all residents. We are building a community together. On behalf of the residents of Clearview and the volunteers of the Library Board, thank you for the generous donation.” Said Mayor Measures.
